Diploma in Media Literacy - Certified by Tirpude College of Social Work

Develop the skills to critically navigate and analyze media in a structured, progressive learning journey.

📖 The program is divided into 4 sequential modules, each worth 4 academic credits.

🕒 Each module builds upon the previous one — designed to gradually deepen your understanding of media influence and information literacy.

🏆 After completing each module, you'll receive a certificate and 4 credits.

🎓 On successful completion of all four modules, you will be awarded the Diploma in Media Literacy — total 16 credits.

Ideal for educators, students, professionals, and social workers who want to become informed, reflective, and responsible media consumers in today's fast-paced digital environment.
